

Sculpture in the Parklands

where art and nature meet

Welcome to Sculpture in the Parklands.

The magnificent wetlands and wildlife wilderness of Lough Boora now host some of the most innovative land and environmental sculptures in Ireland. The artists, inspired by the rich natural and industrial legacy of the boglands, have created a series of large-scale sculptures that are now part of the Parklands permanent collection.

Sculpture in the Parklands Visitor's Code

- Please respect the art and the landscape.
- Look and touch, but do not climb on the sculpture. You may damage the sculpture and yourself.
- Children must be accompanied by an adult.
- Please do not litter. Visitors are welcome to picnic in the parklands but please bring your rubbish home with you.
- No alcohol in the parklands.
- Please do not enter areas marked "No public access" or where machinery is being used to install sculpture.
- Photography is permitted for personal use.
- Please respect other visitors in the sculpture park.
- Do not wade or swim in the canal.
- No horses, quad bikes or jeeps allowed along the walkways.

Visitors Pavilion and Burrow Shelter designed by Caelan Bristow
Bog Oak Bridge designed by Don O'Boyle

Fáilte Ireland
National Tourism Development Authority

BORD NA MÓNA

Lough Boora Parklands
the national centre of cutaway boglands rehabilitation

